TripAdvisor Interview Questions And Answers Guide.

Question - 1:

Who has been an inspiration for you?

Ans:

Cite your role models (possible examples could be your parents, people successful in the industry, world leaders, etc)

View All Answers

Question - 2:

What do you consider to be your greatest achievement so far and why?

Ans:

Be proud of your achievement, discuss the results, and explain why you feel most proud of this one. Was it the extra work? Was it the leadership you exhibited? Was it the impact it had?

View All Answers

Question - 3:

How have you made an impact on your team in the past?

Ans:

I would explain and show to him or her best way possible and if they have a better way then I will encourage him or her to let me know then we can see if it works or not In TripAdvisor.

View All Answers

Question - 4:

What can you offer us that someone else can not?

Ans:

Bad Answer: Going negative - if the candidate starts trash talking other candidates, it's a sure sign of a bad attitude. Also, if they can't provide a solid answer, it may show that they lack thorough knowledge of the skills the job requires, and an understanding of where they fit in.

Good answer: The candidate can name specific skills, abilities or understandings they have that apply directly to the job that other candidates are unlikely to have, or are in short supply.

View All Answers

Question - 5:

What do you see yourself doing within the first 30 days of this job?

Ans:

Typically the first 30 days are designed for you to learn as much as possible In TripAdvisor. Work hard to get to know your teammates, how they work together, and how you can make the biggest impact.

View All Answers

Question - 6:

Tell me about a time when you had to think strategically?

Ans:

There was a time when I was told I had to get rid of 20% of my people. I had to determine which persons I needed the most by determining who could do what. I had to put aside personal feelings so that I could keep a working crew to handle the same workload with less people.

View All Answers

Question - 7:

What are your greatest professional strengths In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

When answering this question, we recommend being accurate (share your true strengths, not those you think the interviewer wants to hear); relevant (choose your strengths that are most targeted to this particular position in TripAdvisor); and specific (for example, instead of "people skills," choose "persuasive communication" or "relationship building"). Then, follow up with an example of how you've demonstrated these traits in a professional setting.

View All Answers

Question - 8:

Tell me about a time when you had to make a decision without all the information you needed. How did you handle it in TripAdvisor? Why? Were you happy with the outcome?

Ans:

In many scenarios, you will not have all the information needed. The key is to make the best possible decision based on what you deem to be a sufficient amount of information.

View All Answers

Question - 9:

Tell me about a time when you had to use your presentation skills to influence someone's opinion in TripAdvisor?

Ans:

Example stories could be a class project, an internal meeting presentation, or a customer-facing presentation.

View All Answers

Question - 10:

You are not given the tools you need to be successful. How would you change that in TripAdvisor?

Ans:

State a business case to your manager / leader as to why you need the tools and make the request for them.

View All Answers

Question - 11:

Where do you see yourself in five years? Ten years?

Ans:

Bad Answer: A generic or uninspired answer. Also, answers that show that this career/company is just a temporary stop for them.

Good answer: One that shows the candidate has thought about this question, has plans, and that those plans align with the job and a career path that is possible in the company. You want to see that this candidate is a good long-term investment.

View All Answers

Question - 12:

What would you do if you won the lottery?

Ans:

The interviewer is asking this question to find out what your true passion is. Ideally, it aligns to the type of work you're interviewing for. If not, tie it back in terms of how it relates to the job, for example, "I believe I'll learn the necessary skills in this job to pursue my passion later on in life."

View All Answers

Question - 13:

Tell me about a difficult decision you've made in the last year in TripAdvisor?

Ans:

We all have difficult decisions in our lives. Show how you were able to arrive at it and then how you decisively acted.

View All Answers

Question - 14:

Do you work well within a team?

Ans:

Some people are thrown when they are asked this TripAdvisor question when they are applying for a position to work alone. Every company works as a team, so you are a good team player, give an example of when you have worked well within a team.

View All Answers

Question - 15:

Tell me about a time when you successfully handled a situation?

Ans:

For this question, the interviewer wants to know what you do in a situation that doesn't have a clear answer. This will help the interviewer know how you respond to unforeseen challenges.

View All Answers

Question - 16:

If you had enough money to retire would you?

Ans:

Just be honest. If you would retire then say so. But since you can't retire, and the interviewer already knows this, simply answer that since you can't this is type of work you prefer doing. However, if you wouldn't retire if you had the money then explain why. Work is an important element of happiness for most people and many won't retire even when they can.

View All Answers

Question - 17:

Are you good at working in a team In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

Before you answer, consider how you best contribute to a team:

- * Do you get along easily with people?
- * Are you an effective collaborator?
- * Can you communicate with people from various backgrounds and with different personalities?
- * Can you motivate people?
- * Do you know how to push back tactfully?
- * Can you mediate conflicts?
- * Can you deal with difficult personalities?

View All Answers

Question - 18:

What motivates you at the work place?

Ans:

Keep your answer simple, direct and positive. Some good answers may be the ability to achieve, recognition or challenging assignments.

View All Answers

Question - 19:

Do you know anyone that works with our company?

Ans:

Sometimes companies have policies relating to the hiring of individuals related to current company employees. If you are related to anyone working for the company make sure you're aware of company policies before you enter the interview. If you have a friend or acquaintance working for the company make sure have good relationship with this individual before mentioning them.

View All Answers

Question - 20:

How do you keep others informed on work issues?

Ans:

Possible methods:

Talking to them, emailing them, sharing best practices in meetings

View All Answers

Question - 21:

Who are your heroes?

Ans:

Have at least one person you consider a hero or role model. Be ready to explain why they are a hero to you and how they've inspired you to be a better person.

View All Answers

Question - 22:

What education or training have you had that makes you fit for this profession In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

This would be the first question asked in any interview. Therefore, it is important that you give a proper reply to the question regarding your education. You should have all the documents and certificates pertaining to your education and/or training, although time may not allow the interviewer to review all of them.

View All Answers

Question - 23:

How do you think your colleagues at your last job would describe you?

Ans:

While your CV will say a lot about your work history In TripAdvisor, the interviewer will most likely look for greater detail with questions such as this. Be positive about previous experience, highlighting your own strengths.

View All Answers

Question - 24:

What have you done to improve your knowledge In TripAdvisor in the last year?

Ans:

Try to include improvement activities that relate to the job In TripAdvisor. A wide variety of activities can be mentioned as positive self-improvement. Have some good ones handy to mention.

View All Answers

Question - 25:

What role do you see technology playing in this role?

Ans:

Technology is important to almost every job today but it's not meant to be abused. I believe it's important to increase productivity and not for personal use.

View All Answers

Question - 26:

Explain me about a challenge or conflict you've faced at work In TripAdvisor, and how you dealt with it?

Ans:

In asking this interview question, your interviewer wants to get a sense of how you will respond to conflict. Anyone can seem nice and pleasant in a job interview, but what will happen if you're hired?. Again, you'll want to use the S-T-A-R method, being sure to focus on how you handled the situation professionally and productively, and ideally closing with a happy ending, like how you came to a resolution or compromise.

View All Answers

Question - 27:

How do you feel about this company's vision?

Ans:

First find out where the company envisions itself in 3-5 years. If you can't find the vision of the company, that's probably a big question mark on the company itself. Once you do, identify how those company's visions align to your personal values and goals and then articulate how tightly correlated that is to the interviewer. For example - this company wants to be the #1 provider of green technology in the world and I feel strongly about that vision because we've got a chance to collectively impact the world to become a greener society and save our clients at the same time!

View All Answers

Question - 28:

If you were an animal, which one would you want to be?

Ans:

Seemingly random personality-test type questions like these come up in interviews generally because hiring managers want to see how you can think on your feet. There's no wrong answer here, but you'll immediately gain bonus points if your answer helps you share your strengths or personality or connect with the hiring manager. Pro tip: Come up with a stalling tactic to buy yourself some thinking time, such as saying, "Now, that is a great question. I think I would have to say..."

View All Answers

Question - 29:

What are ideas or initiatives you've led and what was the outcome?

Ans:

Describe your most unique ideas and initiatives that had the best results for the company. Make sure you highlight your creativity, your results, your diligence and your ability to execute.

View All Answers

Question - 30:

Have you ever mentored anyone before? If yes, describe the situation?

Ans:

Describe a time where you've helped someone else. Mentor ships can be informal so as you've helped someone over a period of time that can certainly count. The key is to highlight how you utilized certain skills/attributes like coaching, teaching, patience, communication skills, and so forth to mentor that person.

View All Answers

Question - 31:

What are some of the things that you and your supervisor disagree upon and how do you resolve them? What do you do when you are pressed for a decision?

Ans:

The key is that you openly communicate your thoughts to your supervisor to explain your position and try to come to a mutual decision together. Also be sure to listen to his/her thoughts so that you can potentially compromise. When you're pressed for a decision, make sure you've put thought into the reasons as to how you arrived at it and then decisively make it.

View All Answers

Question - 32:

How do you define arrogance? Are you arrogant?

Ans:

Arrogance is having an attitude of superiority beyond reason. Confidence is believing in yourself without being cocky. You should not be arrogant.

View All Answers

Question - 33:

If you could offer suggestions on how to improve our company, what would you say?

Ans:

Examine the trends of the company and also where there may be some weaknesses (news articles often document this on public companies or look at their competitors to see how they're positioning it against them.) Then, once you have that knowledge, think creatively on how you could improve upon that weakness for them.

View All Answers

Question - 34:

How many basketballs would fit in this room?

Ans:

One. You did not ask what is the maximum number of basketballs you can fit in the room.

View All Answers

Question - 35:

How do you imagine a typical day of an employee in our company In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

Just do not say that you imagine to only walk and watch what people do. Rather try to show them your attention to details and proactive attitude to job. Mention that you would try to observe the problems, weaknesses as well as opportunities to improve the results and take measures according to it.

View All Answers

Question - 36:

What does success mean to you?

Ans:

I am punctual, I always have excellent attendance on any job In TripAdvisor, I have a keen eye for both large and small details, and I am always finding ways to improve a process and shorten the length of time it takes to complete a project.

View All Answers

Question - 37:

How would you feel about working for someone who knows less than you In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

The reality is, the majority of the time someone is in a management/leadership position is because of their experience and past success. So they probably possess at least a unique set of knowledge from you. So you'll want to learn from them as much as possible. If it's not the case, then discuss how you would look for mentors in different departments to help your personal career development.

View All Answers

Question - 38:

How do you handle repetitive tasks?

Ans:

Some people enjoy it, others don't. Which are you? If you don't like it, can you at least do it well? And if you don't like it, be ready to explain why in a positive way (i.e. your potential is to do much more than simply be repetitive)

View All Answers

Question - 39:

How would your former employer describe you?

Ans:

In all likelihood, the interviewer will actually speak with your former employer so honesty is key. Answer as confidently and positively as possible and list all of the positive things your past employer would recognize about you. Do not make the mistake of simply saying you are responsible, organized, and dependable. Instead, include traits that are directly related to your work as a medical assistant, such as the ability to handle stressful situations and difficult patients, the way you kept meticulous records, and more.

View All Answers

Question - 40:

How have you shown yourself to be a leader?

Ans:

Think about a time where you've rallied a group of people around a cause / idea / initiative and successfully implemented it. It could be a small or large project but the key is you want to demonstrate how you were able to lead others to work for a common cause.

View All Answers

Question - 41:

How many tennis balls can you fit into a limousine? 1,000? 10,000? 100,000? Seriously?

Ans:

Well, seriously, you might get asked brainteaser questions like these, especially in quantitative jobs. But remember that the interviewer doesn't necessarily want an exact number-he wants to make sure that you understand what's being asked of you, and that you can set into motion a systematic and logical way to respond. So, just take a deep breath, and start thinking through the math. (Yes, it's OK to ask for a pen and paper!)

View All Answers

Question - 42:

What is your greatest strength? How does it help you In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

One of my greatest strengths, and that I am a diligent worker... I care about the work getting done.. I am always willing to help others in the team.. Being patient helps me not jump to conclusions... Patience helps me stay calm when I have to work under pressure.. Being a diligent worker.. It ensures that the team has the same goals in accomplishing certain things.

View All Answers

Question - 43:

How do you feel about technology at the workplace in general?

Ans:

It's a great enabler for us to collaborate better as a team, for us to reach customers more efficiently and frequently and I believe it can help any company become more efficient, leaner, and more productive.

View All Answers

Question - 44:

Did you get on well with your last manager?

Ans:

A dreaded question for many! When answering this question never give a negative answer. "I did not get on with my manager" or "The management did not run the business well" will show you in a negative light and reduce your chance of a job offer. Answer the question positively, emphasizing that you have been looking for a career progression. Start by telling the interviewer what you gained from your last job In TripAdvisor

View All Answers

Question - 45:

What types of situations do you consider "unfixable"?

Ans:

Most situations are "fixable" - the ones that are not are typically related to business ethics (someone is cheating the company, someone is stealing, etc)

View All Answers

Question - 46:

How did you find out about this job In TripAdvisor? What do you know about the job?

Ans:

Possible ways to find out about the job:

Online website listing, friend, professional referral, mentor, career fairs, networking events. You should know about the roles and responsibilities of the job and what they're looking for. Make sure you read up on that online beforehand or ask the person that referred you.

View All Answers

Question - 47:

Do you have the ability to articulate a vision and to get others involved to carry it out?

Ans:

If yes, then share an example of how you've done so at work or college. If not, then discuss how you would do so. Example: "I would first understand the goals of the staff members and then I would align those to the goals of the project / company. Then I would articulate the vision of that alignment and ask them to participate. From there, we would delegate tasks among the team and then follow up on a date and time to ensure follow through on the tasks. Lastly, we would review the results together."

View All Answers

Question - 48:

What do you aspire to be?

Ans:

Discuss your aspirations for the near, immediate and long term. You want to show them you are thinking of making an impact now as well as the future.

View All Answers

Question - 49:

What do you know about this department?

Ans:

One good way to find out about the department is to try to "informally" interview the existing employees over coffee (outside of the office) if possible. It's hard if you don't have any connections there, but if you do a great way to learn about it. Other than that, it's often hard to learn about the department so you can turn the table back on them by asking questions to learn about it.

View All Answers

Question - 50:

What's your salary history?

Ans:

When you are interviewing for a new job, it is common practice for the company to ask you about your salary history. I typically want to know what the candidate's base salary is, if they receive any bonus, the average bonus amount, and any additional compensation or perks, such as 500k matching, stock grants or stock options, paid time off and how much they are required to pay towards their medical premiums.

View All Answers

Question - 51:

How do you ensure all of your work gets accomplished in a productive manner?

Ans:

The key is to prioritize what's important in your work and to stay organized to accomplish the tasks. A strong work ethic also helps.

View All Answers

Question - 52:

What kind of salary do you need In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

This is a loaded question and a nasty little game that you will probably lose if you answer first. So, do not answer it. Instead, say something like, that's a tough question. Can you tell me the range for this position? In most cases, the interviewer, taken off guard, will tell you. If not, say that it can depend on the details of the job. Then give a wide range.

View All Answers

Question - 53:

How long will it take for you to make a significant contribution?

Ans:

First define significant contribution - once you do that - lay out a timeline plan in which you think you can achieve that.

View All Answers

Question - 54:

Where do you see yourself professionally five years from now In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

Demonstrate both loyalty and ambition in the answer to this question. After sharing your personal ambition, it may be a good time to ask the interviewer if your ambitions match those of the company.

View All Answers

Question - 55:

What problems have you encountered at work?

Ans:

Wow, do we have problems! Where do I begin? Well, most of the problems are internal, just people not working well with each other. I have one person on our team who is a real problem, but it seems like management is afraid to do anything about it. So we all end up having to do extra work to cover for this person, who just doesn't work. We all say that he's retired in place. I think he's just holding on until retirement in a couple years. But he's a real problem. I complain about it--a lot--but nothing ever seems to get done. I've even written negative reviews about the person, hoping he will get canned, but it doesn't happen. I can't wait for him to retire.

View All Answers

Question - 56:

Do you have good computer skills?

Ans:

It is becoming increasingly important for medical assistants to be knowledgeable about computers. If you are a long-time computer user with experience with different software applications, mention it. It is also a good idea to mention any other computer skills you have, such as a high typing rate, website creation, and more.

View All Answers

Question - 57:

What do you think is your greatest weakness?

Ans:

Don't say anything that could eliminate you from consideration for the job. For instance, "I'm slow in adapting to change" is not a wise answer, since change is par for the course in most work environments. Avoid calling attention to any weakness that's one of the critical qualities the hiring manager is looking for. And don't try the old "I'm a workaholic," or "I'm a perfectionist."

View All Answers

Question - 58:

How do you evaluate your ability to handle conflict?

Ans:

I pride myself on being a good problem solver. Through my previous job and management positions I have faced numerous conflicts in different situations, and my experiences have helped me to hone my issue resolution skills. I believe that it is important to get to and address the root of the issue, in a respectable manner.

View All Answers

Question - 59:

What would you do if our competitor offered you a position In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

I would weigh the offer and consider it, however, this company and this role is my first choice.

View All Answers

Question - 60:

There's no right or wrong answer, but if you could be anywhere in the world right now, where would you be?

Ans:

Just be honest about where you'd like to be - you never know - you may end up bonding with the interviewer with the location. However, you want to stress that you want to work out of the location that you're interviewing for.

View All Answers

Question - 61:

What aspect of supervision do you find the most difficult?

Ans:

Managing different personalities and keeping them focused on the goal at hand.

View All Answers

Question - 62:

What does quality work mean to you?

Ans:

Quality work to be is about doing work to the require or set standard, which is very important when it comes to warehouse operations.

View All Answers

Question - 63:

How would you observe the level of motivation of your subordinates?

Ans:

Choosing the right metrics and comparing productivity of everyone on daily basis is a good answer, doesn't matter in which company you apply for a supervisory role.

View All Answers

Question - 64:

If I were to give you this salary you requested but let you write your job description for the next year, what would it say?

Ans:

It should say the same thing - after all - if you think this salary is fair then it should suit the responsibilities!

View All Answers

Question - 65:

What types of personalities do you work with best?

Ans:

In the past, I have found it difficult to work with others who see themselves as better than others, who can take criticism, and who refuse to work with others. I have found it challenging to work with them b/c I am a team oriented person who feels the importance of working together over the needs of the individual especially in a learning environment.

View All Answers

Question - 66:

Describe a typical work week for this position In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

Interviewers expect a candidate for employment to discuss what they do while they are working in detail. Before you answer, consider the position In TripAdvisor you are applying for and how your current or past positions relate to it. The more you can connect your past experience with the job opening, the more successful you will be at answering the questions.

View All Answers

Question - 67:

What was the most important task you ever had?

Ans:

There are two common answers to this question that do little to impress recruiters:

* 'I got a 2.1'

* 'I passed my driving test'

No matter how proud you are of these achievements, they don't say anything exciting about you. When you're going for a graduate job, having a degree is hardly going to make you stand out from the crowd and neither is having a driving licence, which is a requirement of many jobs.

View All Answers

Question - 68:

What is your greatest weakness In TripAdvisor? What are you doing to improve it?

Ans:

I believe my biggest weakness In TripAdvisor is wanting to help anyone I can help. What I mean is I am willing to take on task that are not my job. I want to learn all I can. However, that has helped me get promoted or even asked to help in times of need in other department. I have been know as the "go to person" when help is needed.

View All Answers

Question - 69:

What techniques and tools do you use to keep yourself organized In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

Utilizing a calendar, having a notebook with your "to do" list, focusing on your top 3 priorities each and every day, utilizing a systematic way of storing documents on your computer (like box.net)

View All Answers

Question - 70:

Describe to me the position In TripAdvisor you're applying for?

Ans:

This is a "homework" question, too, but it also gives some clues as to the perspective the person brings to the table. The best preparation you can do is to read the job description and repeat it to yourself in your own words so that you can do this smoothly at the interview.

View All Answers

Question - 71:

How do you act when you encounter competition?

Ans:

This question is designed to see if you can rise the occasion. You want to discuss how you are the type to battle competition strongly and then you need to cite an example if possible of your past work experience where you were able to do so.

View All Answers

Question - 72:

How much do you expect to get paid In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

For this be prepared and research salary to find out what similar positions are paying in your area before you go to the interview. Try to find this information out before giving your salary expectations. You can and should provide a range instead of an exact number. But again, don't say any numbers you're not comfortable with because if the employer offers you a salary at the lowest end of your range, you don't have much to negotiate with when it comes to getting a higher salary.

View All Answers

Question - 73:

What is your desired salary In TripAdvisor?

Ans:

Bad Answer: Candidates who are unable to answer the question, or give an answer that is far above market. Shows that they have not done research on the market rate, or have unreasonable expectations.

Good answer: A number or range that falls within the market rate and matches their level of mastery of skills required to do the job.
