Employers To Ask Interview Questions And Answers Guide.

Question - 1:

Do you think you are a team player?

Ans:

You are, of course, a team player. Be sure to have examples ready. Specifics that show you often perform for the good of the team rather than for yourself are good evidence of your team attitude. Do not brag, just say it in a matter-of-fact tone. This is a key point.

Question - 2:

Tell me about your greatest strength?

Ans:

Numerous answers are good, just stay positive. A few good examples

- * Your ability to prioritize
- * Your problem-solving skills
- * Your ability to work under pressure
- * Your ability to focus on projects
- * Your professional expertise
- * Your leadership skills
- * Your positive attitude

Question - 3:

Tell me what is your dream job?

Ans:

Stay away from a specific job. You cannot win. If you say the job you are contending for is it, you strain credibility. If you say another job is it, you plant the suspicion that you will be dissatisfied with this position if hired. The best is to stay generic and say something like: A job where I love the work, like the people, can contribute and can not wait to get to work.

Question - 5:

Tell me do you have any questions for me?

Ans:

Always have some questions prepared. Questions prepared where you will be an asset to the organization are good. How soon will I be able to be productive? and What type of projects will I be able to assist on? Are examples.

View All Answers

Question - 6:

When have you had the most fun on the job?

Ans:

Talk about having fun by accomplishing something for the organization.

View All Answers

Question - 7:

Tell me what was your biggest professional disappointment?

Ans:

Be sure that you refer to something that was beyond your control. Show acceptance and no negative feelings.

View All Answers

Question - 8:

Please describe your work ethics?

Ans:

Emphasize benefits to the organization. Things like, determination to get the job done and work hard but enjoy your work are good.

View All Answers

Question - 9:

Tell me what position do you prefer on a team working on a project?

Ans:

Be honest. If you are comfortable in different roles, point that out.

View All Answers

Question - 10:

When was a time when you helped resolve a dispute between others?

Ans:

Pick a specific incident. Concentrate on your problem solving technique and not the dispute you settled.

View All Answers

Question - 11:

Tell me what qualities do you look for in a boss?

Ans:

Be generic and positive. Safe qualities are knowledgeable, a sense of humor, fair, loyal to subordinates and holder of high standards. All bosses think they have these traits.

Question - 12:

Tell me how would you propose to compensate for your lack of experience?

Ans:

First, if you have experience that the interviewer does not know about, bring that up. Then, point out (if true) that you are a hard working quick learner.

View All Answers

Question - 13:

Tell me if you think you are overqualified for this position?

Ans:

Regardless of your qualifications, state that you are very well qualified for the position.

View All Answers

Question - 14:

What would you look for, if you were hiring a person for this job?

Ans:

Be careful to mention traits that are needed and that you have.

View All Answers

Question - 15:

Tell me do you have any blind spots?

Ans:

Trick question. If you know about blind spots, they are no longer blind spots. Do not reveal any personal areas of concern here. Let them do their own discovery on your bad points. Do not hand it to them.

View All Answers

Question - 16:

Can you tell me what have you learned from mistakes on the job?

Ans:

Here you have to come up with something or you strain credibility. Make it small, well intentioned mistake with a positive lesson learned. An example would be working too far ahead of colleagues on a project and thus throwing coordination off.

View All Answers

Question - 17:

Please describe your management style?

Ans:

Try to avoid labels. Some of the more common labels, like progressive, salesman or consensus, can have several meanings or descriptions depending on which management expert you listen to. The situational style is safe because it says you will manage according to the situation, instead of one size fits all.

View All Answers

Question - 18:

Would you put the interests of the organization ahead of your own?

Ans:

This is a straight loyalty and dedication question. Do not worry about the deep ethical and philosophical implications. Just say yes.

View All Answers

Question - 19:

Tell me would you be willing to relocate if required?

Ans:

You should be clear on this with your family prior to the interview if you think there is a chance it may come up. Do not say yes just to get the job if the real answer is no. This can create a lot of problems later on in your career. Be honest at this point and save yourself future grief.

View All Answers

Question - 20:

Tell me how would you know you were successful on this job?

Ans:

Several ways are good measures:

- * You set high standards for yourself and meet them.
- * Your outcomes are a success.
- * Your boss tell you that you are successful.

View All Answers

Question - 21:

Can you work overtime, nights, weekends?

Ans:

This is up to you. Be totally honest.

View All Answers

Question - 22:

What things motivate you to do your best on the job?

Ans:

This is a personal trait that only you can say but good examples are:

- * Challenge
- * Achievement
- * Recognition

View All Answers

Question - 23:

Tell me do your skills match this job or another job more closely?

Ans:

Probably this one. Do not give fuel to the suspicion that you may want another job more than this one.

View All Answers

Question - 24:

What is your ability to work under pressure?

Ans:

You may say that you thrive under certain types of pressure. Give an example that relates to the type of position applied for.

View All Answers

Question - 25:

Tell me what had disappointed you about a job?

Ans:

Do not get trivial or negative. Safe areas are few but can include:

- * Not enough of a challenge.
- * You were laid off in a reduction.
- * Company did not win a contract, which would have given you more responsibility.

View All Answers

Question - 26:

What was a problem you had with a supervisor?

Ans:

Biggest trap of all. This is a test to see if you will speak ill of your boss. If you fall for it and tell about a problem with a former boss, you may well below the interview right there. Stay positive and develop a poor memory about any trouble with a supervisor.

View All Answers

Question - 27:

What would your previous supervisor say about your strongest point?

Ans:

There are numerous good possibilities:

- * Loyalty
- * Energy
- * Positive attitude
- * Leadership

Question - 28:

Tell me what is more important to you the money or the work?

Ans:

Money is always important but the work is the most important. There is no better answer.

View All Answers

Question - 29:

Tell me what kind of person would you refuse to work with?

Ans:

Do not be trivial. It would take disloyalty to the organization, violence or lawbreaking to get you to object. Minor objections will label you as a whiner.

View All Answers

Question - 30:

Why do you think you would do well at this job?

Ans:

Give several reasons and include skills, experience and interest.

View All Answers

Question - 31:

Tell me how long would you expect to work for us if hired?

Ans:

Specifics here are not good. Something like this should work. I would like it to be a long time or as long as we both feel I am doing a good job.

View All Answers

Question - 32:

How would you be an asset to this organization?

Ans:

You should be anxious for this question. It gives you a chance to highlight your best points as they relate to the position being discussed. Give a little advance thought to this relationship.

View All Answers

Question - 33:

Tell me what irritates you about colleagues?

Ans:

This is a trap question. Think real hard but fail to come up with anything that irritates you. A short statement that you seem to get along with folks is great.

View All Answers

Question - 34:

What suggestion you have made before?

Ans:

Have a good one ready. Be sure and use a suggestion that was accepted and was then considered successful. One related to the type of work applied for is a real plus.

View All Answers

Question - 35:

Tell me why should we hire you?

Ans:

Point out how your assets meet what the organization needs. Do not mention any other candidates to make a comparison.

View All Answers

Question - 36:

Tell me about your philosophy towards work?

Ans:

The interviewer is not looking for a long or flowery dissertation here. Do you have strong feelings that the job gets done? Yes. That is the type of answer that works best here. Short and positive, showing a benefit to the organization.

View All Answers

Question - 37:

Can you tell me if you had enough money to retire right now, would you?

Ans:

Answer yes if you would. But since you need to work, this is the type of work you prefer. Do not say yes if you do not mean it.

View All Answers

Question - 38:

Tell me have you ever been asked to leave a position?

Ans:

If you have not, say no. If you have, be honest, brief and avoid saying negative things about the people or organization involved.

View All Answers

Question - 39:

Tell me have you ever had to fire anyone, how did you feel about that?

Ans:

This is serious. Do not make light of it or in any way seem like you like to fire people. At the same time, you will do it when it is the right thing to do. When it comes to the organization versus the individual who has created a harmful situation, you will protect the organization. Remember firing is not the same as layoff or reduction in force.

View All Answers

Question - 40:

How much salary do you need?

Ans:

A loaded question. A nasty little game that you will probably lose if you answer first. So, do not answer it. Instead, say something like, That's a tough question. Can you tell me the range for this position? In most cases, the interviewer, taken off guard, will tell you. If not, say that it can depend on the details of the job. Then give a wide range.

View All Answers

Question - 41:

Tell me if you know anyone who works for us?

Ans:

Be aware of the policy on relatives working for the organization. This can affect your answer even though they asked about friends not relatives. Be careful to mention a friend only if they are well thought of.

View All Answers

Question - 42:

Tell me why are you willing to work for this organization?

Ans:

This may take some thought and certainly, should be based on the research you have done on the organization. Sincerity is extremely important here and will easily be sensed. Relate it to your long-term career goals.

View All Answers

Question - 43:

Did you apply for other jobs?

Ans:

Be honest but do not spend a lot of time in this area. Keep the focus on this job and what you can do for this organization. Anything else is a distraction.

View All Answers

Question - 44:

Tell me what did you do to improve your knowledge in the last year?

Ans:

Try to include improvement activities that relate to the job. A wide variety of activities can be mentioned as positive selfimprovement. Have some good ones handy to mention.

View All Answers

Question - 45:

What do your colleagues say about you?

Ans:

Be prepared with a quote or two from co-workers. Either a specific statement or a paraphrase will work. A co-worker at my company, always said I was the hardest workers she had ever known. It is as powerful as Jill having said it at the interview herself.

View All Answers

Question - 46:

Do you think you are successful?

Ans:

Always answer yes and briefly explain why. A good explanation is that you have set goals, and you have met some and are on track to achieve the others.

View All Answers

Question - 47:

Tell me about your experience in this field?

Ans:

You should speak about specifics that relate to the position you are applying for. If you do not have specific experience, get as close as you can.

View All Answers

Question - 48:

Tell me what do you know about this organization?

Ans:

This question is one reason to do some research on the organization before the interview. Find out where they have been and where they are going. What are the current issues and who are the major players?

View All Answers

Question - 49:

Tell me the reason of leaving your last job?

Ans:

You should stay positive regardless of the circumstances. Never refer to a major problem with management and never speak ill of supervisors, co-workers or the organization. If you do, you will be the one looking bad. Keep smiling and talk about leaving for a positive reason such as an opportunity, a chance to do something special or other forward-looking reasons.

View All Answers

Question - 50:

Tell me about yourself?

Ans:

Most often asked question in interviews. You need to have a short statement prepared in your mind. Be careful that it does not sound rehearsed. Limit it to work-related items unless instructed otherwise. Talk about things you have done and jobs you have held that relate to the position you are interviewing for. Start with the item farthest back and work up to the present.
