Question - 4:

What is cooking hobby?

Ans:

On a normal income, you can not retire early without knowing how to cook for yourself. Learn how to cook the basics like bread and pasta and then branch out into simple, frugal meals like curries, soups and chili. If you base your meals around staples such as rice, potato and pasta, you will save a packet.

Question - 5:

What is restoration hobby?

Ans:

Rebuild old cars, old furniture or anything you can find at thrift-shops that needs a bit of TLC. Make it as good as new to use in your house in place of buying more expensive items, or sell them on for a profit.

Question - 6:

What is caving hobby?

Ans:

You need to know what you are doing here to stay safe. Team up with someone who has done it before. Be prepared to find an amazing world you would never know was there. Not for the claustrophobic.

Question - 7:

What is camping hobby?

Ans:

Get a group of like-minded people together and set off to a beautiful beach, an isolated lake or a native forest. Fun will be had, guaranteed.

Question - 8:

What is guerrilla gardening hobby?

Ans:

Think gardening can not be an extreme sport? It can not get your heart pumping? You are probably right - but guerrilla gardening is still pretty cool. The idea is to plant vegetables in public spaces in your community so that people can see how easy and fun it is to become less reliant on the supermarket.

Question - 9:

What is gardening hobby?

Ans:

It gets you outside, gives you practically free vegetables that are ten times anything you will get in a shop and rewards patience. It is great. If you want somewhere to start, learn how to build an enclosed garden, or a simple raised bed using recycled materials.

Question - 11:

What is web design hobby?

Ans:

A great way to make some money on the side if you can make attractive websites or have the patience to learn how this hobby can make you decent pocket money. If you are really successful there is not any reason why you could not make it a full time job. It is something you can do from anywhere and is always in demand.

Question - 12:

What is surfing the internet?

Ans:

You probably do not need any help with this, but in case you do, here are some great ways to find new things to look at online:

- * Reddit
- * Something Awful Forums
- * Watch endless free videos on YouTube
- * Read forums about something you like
- * If you are really stuck.

Question - 13:

What is surfing hobby?

Ans:

If you are near the ocean try to buy a cheap second hand board. According to those that do it, it is hilariously fun. The board will not cost you much and should last you many years. Like cycling, try not to fall into the upgrading trap. You do not need a new wet suit every season or a new board just because you're sick of your old one.

Question - 14:

What is snorkeling hobby?

Ans:

It is also amazing fun. You can make a spear out of an old broom handle and a bike inner tube, you might even catch dinner.

View All Answers

Question - 15:

What is a swimming hobby?

Ans:

Not necessarily cheap if you can only do it at a swimming center with expensive membership. However, if you are near the sea or a swimming bath that does not cost anything to use then swimming is a great way to get fit.
