Camp Counselor Interview Questions And Answers Guide.

Question - 1:

What do you like about working with kids?

Ans:

The role of a camp counselor revolves around working with children. This is your chance to really let your passion shine through.

"There are so many different aspects that I love about working with kids. First, the level of unpredictability is exciting. You never know what to expect each day and it keeps you on your toes. Also, they have a fresh perspective on life that we tend to lose as we grow older. Lastly, seeing the process of young people starting to become aware of their full potential is extremely rewarding."

Ans:

I am not associated with any of the other camp counselors

View All Answers

Question - 10:

What is your biggest weakness as Camp Counselor?

Ans:

My biggest weakness is probably that I am impatient. I always like to have something planned and I always like to be on the move. When I have down time or especially when I have to wait for something, I tend to feel impatient and anxious. But I know that this quality will help me always be a step ahead and always have something to do to keep myself and my campers busy.

Question - 11:

Name three characteristics of a good camp counselor?

Ans:

Maturity, common sense and good judgment are keys to be a successful camp counselor.

View All Answers

Question - 12:

Tell me what makes you a good role model?

Ans:

Camp counselors have a lasting impact on the campers that they lead. It is imperative that you, as a camp manager, hire good role models for your campers to look up to.

View All Answers

Question - 13:

What personality trait makes you a good fit for this job?

Ans:

Camp counselors must be energetic, creative, patient, and caring. Asking a candidate why they think their personality is a good fit for a job at a summer camp is insightful and will help you be sure that you are making a good choice.

View All Answers

Question - 14:

What age groups do you have experience working with as Camp Counselor?

Ans:

The interviewer is figuring out your level of experience and how relevant it is to their open position.

"I have experience working with a variety of age groups. I started off babysitting children from ages seven to nine. Then, I worked at an after school center where I worked with kids ages 12 to 16 years old. The majority of my experience comes from working with the older age group."

View All Answers

Question - 15:

What made you decide to apply for a job as a camp counselor?

Ans:

I want to be involved in outdoor activities over summer and a camp counselor seemed to fit my desire perfectly.

View All Answers

Question - 16:

Explain some of the important duties that are particular to a camp counselor's role?

Ans:

The first thing a camp counselor does is create and implement a schedule for the group under his or her care. Subsequent duties include organizing and leading activities just as crafts, games, nature hunts, swimming and archery. It is important to participate in all camp activities robustly and ensure the safety of members on a constant basis.

View All Answers

Question - 17:

You were just voted camp counselor of the summer. Why did you win?

Ans:

This open-ended question will make each candidate think about what makes them a good camp counselor. As an interviewer, it will demonstrate what their most desirable counselor qualities are.

View All Answers

Question - 18:

How do you think you will handle a job that literally requires you to live at it?

Ans:

I think I will be able to handle it very well. Being immersed in the camp environment will be a great learning experience and give me the opportunity to learn and develop continuously on the job.

View All Answers

Question - 19:

Can you handle a group that includes one or two children with a disability?

Ans:

Yes, I have previously worked with a group consisting of a hearing disabled teenager and an ADHD five year old.

View All Answers

Question - 20:

What have you heard about being a camp counselor?

Ans:

A camp counselor needs to have patience and be responsible for a group of children. Teach leadership and teamwork to children.

View All Answers

Question - 21:

What do you enjoy about working with kids?

Ans:

If the candidate responds with, "Nothing," you can end the interview and thank them for their time. Camp counselors must enjoy working closely with children for an extended period of time. Asking about their favorite aspects of working with children can help you gauge whether or not they are a good fit for the role.

View All Answers

Question - 22:

Are there any age groups you would prefer not working with?

Ans:

No. I accept all kids as they are. I have a little sister that is 1 year old to a brother that is 15. I take care of all of them. So any age group would work perfect with me.

View All Answers

Question - 23:

How do you handle a parent who is over reacting to the way their child is being kept or activities that are being conducted?

Ans:

I deal with such parents calmly, listen carefully to their concerns and reply them politely; addressing the issues they brought up one by one. I refer them to the management if they are still not satisfied.

View All Answers

Question - 24:

How would you handle a conflict with your co-counselor?

Ans:

When many personalities are living in close quarters, conflicts will inevitably arise. Counselors should be able to handle minor conflicts in a mature manner, without the involvement of camp management.

View All Answers

Question - 25:

What would be your number one goal at this camp, if you were a camp counselor?

Ans:

Connect with the children and make sure they have a great experience that makes them want to come back to camp again.

View All Answers

Question - 26:

Have you ever worked with a member of a group that may have limitations or disabilities? What was your experience?

Ans:

I have come across many members who have physical limitations and / or disabilities. While it is not easy to handle one person who has limitations when others don't, it is something that one has to do. I was required to exercise a lot of patience and learn new skills in handling certain situations. I believe that this experience made me more equipped to handle challenging tasks of this nature.

View All Answers

Question - 27:

What will you do if one camper refuses to participate in the group activity other 15 people are doing?

Ans:

Before initiating an activity I usually take everybody's consent and generate enough team spirit to have a consensus on the planned activity. If however a member still refuses or does not agree I'll check if there is a serious problem underlying the behavior. Once satisfied I don't press them to involve in that particular activity but if the refusal persists in following activities I probe further and counsel the person if needed.

View All Answers

Question - 28:

Tell me what skills or interests do you have that would make you a great camp counselor?

Ans:

The job of a camp counselor is diverse. One minute, they may be leading an arts and crafts project, and the next, they are setting up teams for a camp-wide kickball tournament. Useful knowledge and skills will make a job candidate successful at camp.

View All Answers

Question - 29:

If you had to fill 30 minutes of your schedule with an impromptu activity, what would it be?

Ans:

Counselors often have to invent games and activities on the spot. This question will let you know just how creative and energetic a candidate can be.

View All Answers

Question - 30:

Are you aware that it is within poor judgement to be alone with a kid? How do you prevent this type of situation?

Ans:

I will assure that I never become alone with any child unless specifically told to do so by the camp leaders. If a problem occurs with a child I will report it to the camp leaders.

View All Answers

Question - 31:

You notice a couple of cliques have developed among the campers and that one or two campers have been completely excluded. How would you go about solving the problem?

Ans:

As a camp counselor, you need to be aware of problems among the campers. The interviewer is seeing how you would resolve an issue internally.

"This type of problem is not uncommon in these types of situations. Everyone wants to fit in and I am a strong believer in an all-inclusive environment. To solve the dilemma, I would initiate a few team-building activities. However, I would configure the teams with people who wouldn't typically interact so that they get to know each other better and everyone has to step out of their comfort zone. Also, I have this method called the "triple play", where I would take the two campers who seem to be excluded to do a fun activity with me. They feel special for being able to do something nobody else could and it allows them both the opportunity to open up, perhaps even forming a friendship with one another."
