Auto Body Worker Interview Questions And Answers Guide.

Question - 1:

Tell us what was the work environment like as Auto Body Worker?

Ans:

The work environment was really friendly. It was very open. I could talk to my bosses about anything. It's pretty easy going. They teach you how to do it, and it's really learning by doing.

Question - 2:

Why should we hire you as Auto Body Worker?

Ans:

I work hard, I am an excellent problem solver, I am a happy person, even though I am learning, I have a huge will to learn, and I'm easy to be around and easy going. I will be at the very top of the list of the hardest workers in the shop.

Question - 3:

Tell us what does teamwork mean to you?

Ans:

In this line of work, no one can work alone. Teamwork is of great importance. Body repair technicians, body painters and engine technicians all have to work together to complete a restoration project.

Question - 5:

Explain me how do you feel about challenges?

Ans:

My creative juices get flowing at the sight of a challenge. I welcome them with an open mind. In fact, if there isn't a challenge involved, the work does get a tad boring and mundane.

Question - 6:

Explain me what kind of supervisor gets the best work performance from you?

Ans:

I work very well under pressure, however I appreciate being treated well. If I am treated well, I will guarantee I will work harder than any other technician in a shop.

Question - 7:

Can you explain me your job title and primary duties?

Ans:

My job title was a parts sales representative and cashier with ABC. Basically, that meant I would sell products, I would stock and face the store, which was making sure everything was organized in the store, unload trucks, and I would help customers with small tasks like batteries and windshield wipers.

Question - 8:

Tell me what do you do when your time schedule or project plan is upset by unforeseen circumstances?

Ans:

Explain to my supervisor if there was extra parts that were bad, or something giving me a hard time. And since I work hard and smart, hope that he/she understands I've worked as hard as I'm capable of and ran into issues that were out of my hands.

Question - 9:

Tell us what should we do after an accident?

Ans:

Here are some tips for dealing with the aftermath of an accident.

* Do not drive your car if it is unsafe. If you can safely drive your vehicle, bring it to us as soon as possible.

* If you cannot operate your car, truck or SUV, call us and we can tow your vehicle.

* Remember that you have the right to go to the repair shop of your choice. Your insurance company or the other drivers insurance cannot require you to go to a particular repair shop.

* Differences in repair estimates are common. It is your vehicle, you deserve the highest quality repairs. Read the fine print and consider carefully before you accept the lowest repair estimate.

Question - 11:

Can you tell me how would you describe the application and interview process?

Ans:

The application was really simple. You filled it out on the computer. It was a little awkward, though, because you walked behind the counter, so people think you're working there, when you're just filling out the application. But, it was really straightforward questions. The questions were really easy. Some things you would put on a resume, and the interview was really comfortable. It's just a one-on-one interview in a backroom. Just asking basic questions - why I want the job, what do I know about cars, and my experience.

Question - 12:

Suppose you were asked to provide help with a paint job, what would you do?

Ans:

If my schedule allows it and my supervisor gives permission, I would not hesitate in saying yes.

Question - 13:

Please explain with an example of a situation where you had difficulties with a team member?

Ans:

When technicians work for a body shop, I believe we are a team. There is a lot of heavy lifting in a shop, mechanic or body work, it only takes a few moments to help your teammate (coworker) lift a bed, lift a hood, hang a door etc. The only time I have had a difficulty with a coworker is when he refused to help 3 of us put a bed back on a truck frame. And I handled that situation by very politely ignoring his rude no and snard remarks, and going to my boss, politely explaining the situation so that it was in his hands and not mine. I will always avoid a confrontation with a coworker.

Question - 14:

Explain me a situation where other people who you were working with did not agree with your ideas. What did you do?

Ans:

When I sold GM parts, we were switching everything over from book logs and orders to online logs and orders. I had several suggestions that I felt would make the process easier or faster. I politely explained them to my boss. Rarely he would agree we could try it, when he didn't agree, I simply said ok and did what he told me to do, how he told me to do it.

Question - 22:

Explain me a typical day as an employee?

Ans:

Typical day... usually, I would open or close. If I opened, I'd wait there, I'd walk inside, I would immediately check my register, I had to make sure that everything was counted right. I would make sure that the fridge was stocked, because customers like to get things. Then, once people were in, it's pretty slow in the morning, so it's more people coming in to buy things, like guys that are tinkering with their cars. But the middle of the day, it's pretty hectic, so it's everybody is behind the counter, and I'm looking up things on the computer, then I'm running to the back to go grab them. There's usually a lot of batteries that people want to bring in to be checked or a lot of electrical questions. Then, by the end of the day, it's pretty calm. Usually, two or three people would come in right when we're closing, and that's about it. You're just stocking the store again.
