Question - 8:

What is the purpose of SDLC?

Ans:

Its purpose is very clear from its name itself i.e. System Development Life Cycle. It consists of all the phases of a s/w development. I can say that SDLC is the backbone of any s/w development. If we want to develop an ideal s/w we must follow any SDLC model. Without usng any SDLC I think we can not imagine the development of any S/W.
