Question - 8:

I am going to attend the H1B interview for X company in the coming month. As I am married and need to apply for dependent visa for my wife in advance (or with me) because after going to US, it will be hard to do that.

If the visa is approved and want to stay at home for more 2-3 months and then come to US, can she do that?

What will be the validity of the Dependent Visa?

Is there any specific time in which she needs to land in US compulsory?

Ans:

You can definitely do that. She can stay back in India as long as she wants. You can bring your family to US later.

VISA validity will be equal to your H1B VISA validity date.

Question - 9:

How long will it take to get my interview date after submitting D160 form?

Ans:

DS-160 is just a supporting document for visa. It is not an application for booking a visa appointment date. If you want to book a visa appointment please follow the below link with the DS-160 form bar code number:

<https://www.vfs-usa.co.in/ApplyForms/RegularUser.aspx>

After going into the website please select a link accordingly and proceed. After filling the DS-160 there is no guarantee about when you will get the visa appointment.

It depends on the availability of visa appointment date. You can also check the visa availability in the below site.

<https://www.vfs-usa.co.in/USIndia/visaappointment.html#earliest>

On booking the visa appointment date you will immediately get a confirmation letter about the visa appointment. Please take a printout of both visa appointment confirmation letter and DS-160. I am not sure if you have made the payment for visa appointment. Just in case if you did not make the payment, you can make it HDFC bank and you will get a receipt with bar code. Also keep the code safe. You need visa appointment letter, DS-160 form and HDFC receipt along with the required documents for visa while attending the visa interview.
